A PROPOSED GENERAL HOSPITAL

A Committee of Citizens Urge the Estab Ishment of Such an Institution.

A committee of Such an Institution.

A committee consisting of Thomas J. Durant, eag., Drs. Ashford, Johnson, Eliot, William Lee and D. W. Prontiss waited upon the commissioners yesterday and presented a report recently adopted at a meeting of citizens urging the establishment of a general hospital. The matter was discussed at some length the commissioners expressing much interest in the subject. Commissioner Morgan when he held the office of chief of police was an earnest advocate of a plan to provide a general hospital and an ambulance system, and entered fully into the movement now started, lit was thought ill-advised to fix upon any location for the proposed hospital at the present time. The District, so the commissioners asid, could not recommend the selection of the ground indicated, but they promised to supplement the efforts of the commissioner in the commissioner is and could not recommend the selection of the ground indicated, but they promised to supplement the efforts of the committee in any way they could. The report referred to the control of the ground indicated, but they promised to supplement the efforts of the committee in any way they could. The report referred to the control of the ground indicated, but they are forch, that are a first the force of the ground indicated, but they are forced to the committee in any way they could. The report referred to the control of the ground indicated, but they are forced to the ground indicated to a complete with seemes of which we are forced to the commissioner and the selection of the ground indicated to accomplish much to work out the problem of the eradication of polygamy. The sould be seen by our residuation of the ground destined to accomplish much to were any and destined to accomplish much to w lishment of Such an Institutio mittee in any way they could. The report referred to sets forth that ever since the burning of the infirmary, nearly twenty years ago, the District has been without any organized general hospital over which the authorities had any control except the unleathily located aims-house hospital, so objectionable for this purpose on account of its inaccessibility as well as its relation to the alms-house.

The committee recommend, first, the endish as Josephine The committee recommend, first, the establishment of a general hospital; second, that the hospital be managed by a board of citizens, one-half to be composed of physicians to be appointed by the District commissioners; third, that the commissioners ask an appropriation of $00,000 for the requisite expenses to provide accommodations for the representation of suitable buildings, the comployment of the nurses necessary, etc. The composition of the nurses necessary, etc. The composition of the nurses necessary, etc. The comnear of the unress necessary, etc. The com-mittee also recommend that two other wards be provided for cases of temporary insanity or delirium, and an executive building to ac-commodate the apothecary, physiciaus, etc., and provide parlors, dining-rooms and other necessary apartments.

The committee recommend that steps be taken to secure the buildings and grounds of the Soldlers' and Sailors' orphan asylum, and the grounds known as the Holmead cemetery grounds, the former to be sold and the funds thus realized to be used in the crection of suitable buildings. The committee express the hope that if the work of construction is the hope that if the work of construction is undertaken the coming spring the hospital could be opened for patients on the 1st of December, 1881. The cost of construction and equipment of the hospital is estimated at $50,000, and its expenses for the first six margins $10,000. months $10,000.
